WARNING

The Tractor & Farm Machinery Safety course at Linn-Benton Community College involves the actual operation of tractors and other farm equipment by students participating in the course. Participation may involve injury of some type to you, a fellow student or an instructor. Such injury can include direct physical and possibly crippling injury to one’s body and the possibility of emotional injury experienced as a result of witnessing or actually accidentally inflicting injury to another. The severity of such injury can range from a minor injury to complete paralysis or even death. Such injury can impair one’s general physical/mental health and hinder one’s future ability to earn a living or generally enjoy life.

Injuries in a Tractor Safety course commonly might occur to arms, hands, head, neck, chest, torso, legs, feet or other body parts or systems and might include head, neck or body trauma; crushing or severing of limbs; lacerations, abrasions or other trauma or injury. Injuries may result from tractor over-turning, hitting a solid object or running over someone or something; from the correct or incorrect performance of techniques used in class; from misjudgment in handling the equipment; from the administration of first aid; from failing to follow training, safety or other rules or from other occurrences. This list is non-exhaustive and is provided by way of illustration of risks or injuries that may be incurred. There may be other types of injuries or the risk of injury or death resulting from other causes not specified here.

The purpose of this WARNING is to bring your attention to the existence of potential dangers associated with participation in the course and to help you make a voluntary and informed decision as to whether you (or your child or ward) should participate in this class and, as a condition of such participation, sign this INFORMED ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RISKS AND HAZARDS. In addition, its purpose is to make you aware that as a student or as a parent/guardian of a student, it is your responsibility to learn about and to inquire of instructors, physicians or other knowledgeable persons about any concerns that you might have at any time regarding student safety and the safety of the college’s Tractor Safety course. You may seek legal counsel before signing this form.

If you decide to participate, by your signature you hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless Linn-Benton Community College including its officers, employees and agents against any/all claims, damages, demands, liabilities and costs incurred including attorney’s fees, which might be made by the undersigned or any third party as a result of damage, injury or death suffered. This agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, successors, and assigns of the undersigned. I understand and acknowledge that signing this agreement severely limits my legal rights, and as such, I have been encouraged above to seek legal counsel before signing.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RISKS AND HAZARDS

STUDENT: By signing this acknowledgment of hazards and risks, I acknowledge that I have read its contents and warning, that I understand its contents and warning, and that I intend to learn and follow all safety procedures, and that I choose to participate in this class.
