If a student is doing poorly in a College Now class, the student may decide to drop or withdraw from the College Now class to avoid a poor grade. The last day to drop or withdraw from a College Now class will vary depending on the dates the class starts and ends. See the College Now High School Academic Calendar page, ask your College Now teacher or contact the High School Partnership office.

*Dropping a class will not effect your LBCC transcript. Please check drop deadlines.

*Withdrawing from a class will result in a W on your LBCC transcript. Please check withdraw deadlines.

Grades Matter: grades of D, F and W on a college transcript could affect academic standing along with completion rate which could delay Financial Aid processing.
