Why become a member of the Part-Time Faculty Association (PTFA)?

- The greater the support from our members, the stronger our position in contract negotiations.
- We negotiate your contract with the college on your behalf.
- We represent and support you when you have issues with the administration or working conditions.
- We are your voice to the Administration and the Board of Education.
- We are an important resource for work-related information and support.
- We appoint members to committees which allows participation in College governance.
- Members may vote on tentative contract agreements, officer elections, and changes to the bylaws.
- Members may attend Association meetings and participate in Association governance.

I commit to joining my colleagues in the Part-Time Faculty Association to demand fair wages, defend against unfair labor practices, and fight for improved working conditions.

I commit to membership in the Linn-Benton Community College Part-Time Faculty Association (PTFA). I agree to abide by its bylaws. Effective immediately, I hereby voluntarily authorize and direct my employer to deduct Association dues from my paychecks as certified by the Part-Time Faculty Association and remit those amounts to the Association. This dues deduction authorization is unconditional, irrespective of whether I am or remain a member of the Association and is made in consideration of the cost of representation and other actions taken on my behalf by the PTFA. This agreement is irrevocable for at least three terms (not including summer term) from the date of execution. After that, if I wish to revoke my support for the Association, I will notify the Vice-President of Membership, in writing and with my signature, during the month of May.
