

Concurrent Enrollment Application for International Students

International students who would like to enroll at Linn-Benton Community College (LBCC) and another SEVIS-approved school at the same time must request permission. You must meet with an International Student Advisor and obtain your advisor's recommendation prior to the term for which you would like to take the concurrent enrollment. To be eligible for concurrent enrollment:

- Students must be admitted for study at both primary and secondary institutions.
- Total enrollment at both schools must amount to a minimum of 12 credit hours of college level academic credit each term. Students must be enrolled for a minimum of 6 credits at LBCC to be eligible for concurrent enrollment.
- No more than a total of 3 credits of online classes (between both schools) can count toward full-time enrollment per term.
- Attention: If you are a scholarship student you must get approval from your scholarship advisor.

IMPORTANT:

- This completed form must be received in International Programs before the first day of the term.
- Attach a copy of your class schedule from your other school.
- Must provide the official transcript from your other school at the end of the term.
